Flights, weather and operating conditions may require schedule adjustments.

DAY
1

FLOATPLANE • LODGE • GUIDED FISHING

Depart Anchorage at approximately 10:30 a.m. on a scenic 70-mile floatplane flight to Wilderness Place Lodge. Arrive for chef-prepared lunch, then fish the river with your personal guide for rainbow trout, Arctic grayling, northern pike or salmon, depending on season and regulations. Return for a gourmet 4-course dinner with local beer and wine. Overnight in a private deluxe riverside cabin.

2

MORNING FISHING • HELICOPTER • GLACIER DOGS

Morning fishing, followed by the lodge's approximately 11:45 a.m. float plane departure. Return to Anchorage around 1:00 p.m. and connect with the glacier-tour shuttle. Travel north to Alaska Glacier Lodge for an afternoon helicopter adventure featuring two glacier landings and an upper-glacier dogsledding experience. Enjoy dinner, then shuttle to your premium Anchorage hotel for the night.

3

BREAKFAST • CHECKOUT • CONTINUE YOUR ALASKA TRIP

Use your included breakfast voucher and check out by approximately 11:00 a.m. Continue your Anchorage stay, connect with another Alaska itinerary, or transfer independently to Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport.

GOOD TO KNOW

- Moderately strenuous: river wading, uneven glacier terrain and boarding aircraft
- Participants should be in good health; recommended for ages 8+
- Travel insurance is strongly recommended
- Exact times and activities are weather- and operations-dependent

NOT INCLUDED

- Fishing license
- Lodge bed tax
- Guide and pilot gratuities
- Airport transfer after checkout
