Discover the highest quality, most unique off-grid adventure package within a convenient 100 mile radius of Anchorage, Alaska. This combination adventure is all-inclusive, guided and fully outfitted. This adventure is designed for groups of 2-4. Begin your adventure with a scenic 45 minute float plane flight departing Anchorage's renowned Lake Hood seaplane base. Arrive at Wilderness Place Lodge in time for lunch provided by the professional chef team of 3. Wilderness Place Lodge is a highly reviewed all-inclusive fishing lodge with deluxe private cabins with bath, a gorgeous log lodge, a courteous staff of 18 that hosts an average number of 15 guests.

Depending on the package duration you choose will determine the number of nights spent at Wilderness Place Lodge. The 3 and 4 night packages includes a fly-out to the Pioneer Cabin Outpost with a guided 6 mile fishing float trip. After your time experiencing Wilderness

Place Lodge including fishing, hiking, wine and dining, you will return to Anchorage by float plane in time to meet your shuttle to the Knik River Lodge, approximately 1 hour North. The Knik River Lodge is a high-quality wilderness lodge at the end of the road within the scenic Knik River Valley. Here you will meet your Helicopter guide and embark on a once-in-a-lifetime Heli-Glacier experience into one of the most impressive glacial icefields in all of Alaska. Your tour includes a glacial landing and an optional Glacier Dog-sledding experience for those interested. Following your heli-tour, wine & dine at the renowned Raven's Perch Restaurant prior to checking into your private cabin for the night. Enjoy a leisurely morning on your final day with complimentary breakfast and shuttle back to Anchorage following check-out. If you will have your own car for transport to/from Knik River Lodge, please let us know as we will discount your package accordingly. Current rates:
